

Hate Crime Awareness Week

2015 Event Programme

www.southwark.gov.uk/hatecrime

A series of events commemorating Hate Crime Awareness Week, raising awareness of hate crime and celebrating diversity

For more information, email karrim.jalali@southwark.gov.uk or call 020 7525 3663

Saturday 10 October

Launch Event

St Paul's Cathedral, 6pm to 8pm

A service will be held in St Paul's cathedral to remember and honour all victims of hate crime. There will be a speech from Stephen Greenhalgh, London's Deputy Mayor of Policing and Crime. There will also be performances at the start and finish from Diversity Choir. To book a place and for more information, go to www.stophateuk.org/hate-crime-awareness-week

Loving the Africa in each and every one of us: our natural inclusionality with Dr Ian Phillips

Southwark Senior Citizens Group, Elim House, 86 Bellenden Road, Peckham, SE15 4RQ, 10am to 1pm

Writer Ben Okri says, learn to love the Africa in us, otherwise the world will not heal. Dr. Ian Phillips demonstrates how our self-identities naturally include neighbourhood in co-creating a loving world embracing Okri's warning. To book a place email estella@familyhealththisis.org.uk

Sunday 11 October

Information sharing

London Bridge Station, 3pm to 6pm

In collaboration with British Transport Police and Transport for London, teams will be available to offer information and advice to customers, and carry out a hate crime survey which will help to improve how hate crime is handled in Southwark.

Monday 12 October

Information sharing

Mobile Office, Asda, Old Kent Road, SE1 5AG, 10am to 2pm

Members of Southwark Hate Crime Network and Southwark Police will be available to share information and offer advice about hate crime services in Southwark.

Information sharing

London Bridge Station, 3pm to 6pm

In collaboration with British Transport Police and Transport for London, teams will be available to offer information and advice to customers, and carry out a hate crime survey which will help to improve how hate crime is handled in Southwark.

Tuesday 13 October

Hate Crime Awareness Training

Southwark Council, 160 Tooley Street, SE1 2QH, 9.30am to 12.30pm

Free Hate Crime Awareness Training is available to any front-line staff working in Southwark, covering: the legal definitions of hate crime and what incidents, the history to the legislation, the barriers to reporting, the impact of hate crime, and the services and support available for victims and witnesses. All places on this training are fully booked.

Information sharing: Meet and Greet

East Street Market, 55-59 East Street, SE17 2DJ, 11am-1pm

Pop into Carnival del Pueblo shop-fronts for a cup of tea and a biscuit, and meet East Walworth Safer Neighbourhood Team, Southwark Hate Crime Network, and Southwark Safer Neighbourhood Board members. It's also an opportunity to hear about the regeneration plans for the area.

INCPA Celebrating Black History

Wickway Community Centre, St George's Way, SE15 6PL, 4.30pm to 6.30pm

Part of a series of health and wellbeing workshops using drama and dance to explore the historical struggles and culture of black African, Caribbean and British achievers from past and present generations. Book tickets by emailing info@incpa.org.uk

Wednesday 14 October

LGBT Hate Crime Awareness Training Session from Metro

Southwark Council, 160 Tooley Street, SE1 2QH, 9.45am to 12.30pm

Metro are kindly offering LGBT Hate Crime Training for frontline workers. The training is free of charge, and aims to develop participants' understanding of hate crimes and hate incidents that lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) people face. To reserve a place and for more information, contact peter@metrocharity.org.uk

Learn more about Learning Disability Hate Crime

Southwark Council, 160 Tooley Street, 12.45pm to 1.45pm

Presented by Richard Walker, Co-Chair of Southwark Hate Crime Network, representing Speaking Up Southwark, this is for anyone who wishes to know more about learning disabilities and learning disability hate crimes. It's free for anyone living or working in Southwark to attend, with free refreshments and snacks too. Please email karrim.jalali@southwark.gov.uk to arrange your place.

Information sharing

Mobile Office at Tesco, Old Kent Road, SE1 5AG 10am to 2pm

Members of SHCN and Southwark Police will be available to share information and offer advice about hate crime services in Southwark.

The Dream: the story behind Martin Luther King's speech

Canada Water Library, 21 Surrey Quays Road, SE16 7AR, 7pm

Broadcaster and award winning columnist Gary Younge presents a talk based on his critically acclaimed book. He will be shedding new light on the background, delivery and enduring importance of Martin Luther King's 'I have a dream' speech, examining what made the speech so timely and so timeless, why we remember it and what about it we have chosen to forget. To book a place, email southwark.libraries@southwark.gov.uk

Thursday 15 October

Hate Crime Awareness Training

Southwark Council, Queen's Road, Peckham, 9.30am to 12.30pm

Free hate crime awareness training is available to all Southwark front-line staff, covering the legal definitions of hate crime, the barriers to reporting, the impact of hate crime, and the services and support available for victims and witnesses. All places on this training are fully booked.

Southwark Safer Neighbourhood Board (SSNB) - Let's Talk: Tackling Hate Crime: What can be done to reduce and prevent it?

Cambridge House, 1 Addington Square, Camberwell, London, SE5 0HF, 11am to 1pm

Facilitated by Elena Noel, Restorative Justice Practitioner and Mediator, and Chair of Southwark Safer Neighbourhood Board and Southwark Hate Crime Network, this is a special community consultation including guest speakers, focusing on what can be done in communities, by agencies, and through changes in the law to break down the barriers to reporting hate crime. Email empoweringpeopleforexcellence@yahoo.com with 'Tackling Hate Crime' in the subject line to reserve your place. Refreshments and lunch will be provided.

Friday 16 October

Information sharing

Bermondsey Station, 8am to 11am

In collaboration with British Transport Police and Transport for London, teams will be available to offer information and advice to customers, and carry out a hate crime survey which will help to improve how hate crime is handled in Southwark.

Hate crime in law, the impact of hate crime, and the barriers to reporting

South Bank University, 103 Borough Road, SE1 0AA, 9am to 1pm

A special lecture and seminar session available to students at South Bank University in collaboration with Southbank University's Criminology Department, Southwark Council and Southwark Hate Crime Network. Places may be limited; more information will be directly available to students.

Information sharing

South Bank University, The Student Life Centre, South Bank University, London, SE1 0AA, 10am to 1pm

Members of Southwark Hate Crime Network and Southwark Police will be on hand and available to speak to students, share information and offer advice about hate crime services in Southwark. There will be an opportunity for students to complete a survey which will help improve how we respond to hate crime in Southwark.

Modern-day Slavery Exposed

Time and Talents, The Old Mortuary, St Marychurch Street, London, SE16 4JE, 2pm to 5pm

To mark Anti-slavery Day 2015, Southwark Forum for Equality and Human Rights in Southwark invite frontline workers, volunteers and people active in their local communities to join them for a series of discussions on how we identify modern day slavery, the nature and impact of the trafficking experience, practical steps to end human trafficking, support that is available. Spaces are limited so please book early by emailing smooney@southwarkcabservice.org.uk

Saturday 17 October

Information sharing

Southwark Station, 8am to 11am

In collaboration with British Transport Police and Transport for London, teams will be available to offer information and advice to customers, and carry out a hate crime survey which will help to improve how hate crime is handled in Southwark.

Go Get It

Green Area on Southampton Way Estate, SE5 7DH, 12pm to 5pm

Empowering young people by getting them to research the achievements of black Londoners past and present, and giving them the opportunity to display their research - demonstrating how to succeed through interests and positive choices.

Bermondsey and Rotherhithe Community Council meeting

Silverlock Community Hall, Warndon Street, SE16 2SB, 1pm to 4pm

Bermondsey and Rotherhithe residents can speak to a select Crime and Community Safety Panel composed of the police, the local ward panels, council representatives, Southwark Safer Neighbourhood Board and Southwark Hate Crime Network. A team will be available to provide freebies, information and advice to the public.

And throughout the week...

Southwark Council, 160 Tooley Street, SE1 2QH

Members of the Southwark Hate Crime Network and Southwark's Community Safety Partnership Service will be available at different times during the week to offer information and support about hate crime services.

Libraries and One Stop Shops

Visit your local library or One Stop Shop for information and leaflets and to complete a survey which will shape and influence the response to hate crime in Southwark.

Southwark's Youth Service

Anti-discrimination training with young people in Southwark, and youth clubs will have information and promotional literature available for young people.

Southwark's Warden Service and Southwark's Night Time Economy Team

In partnership with police and Southwark's Licensing Team, Wardens will be visiting carefully chosen 'hotspot' areas to attend businesses, and speak to managers and staff about hate crime and the services and support that are available in Southwark.

Volunteers from Southwark's Youth Offending Service Reparation Team will be in various locations of Southwark to promote the week, and carry out surveys with the public.

In partnership with:

London South Bank University

