

Report hate crime

Hostility and prejudice targeted towards anyone because of their disability, gender, gender identity, faith, race or sexual orientation is unacceptable.

Challenge it, Report it, Stop It.

You can report hate crime directly to your local Police Service or via True Vision.

Dial 999

IN AN EMERGENCY

OR

DIAL 101

IF IT IS NOT AN EMERGENCY

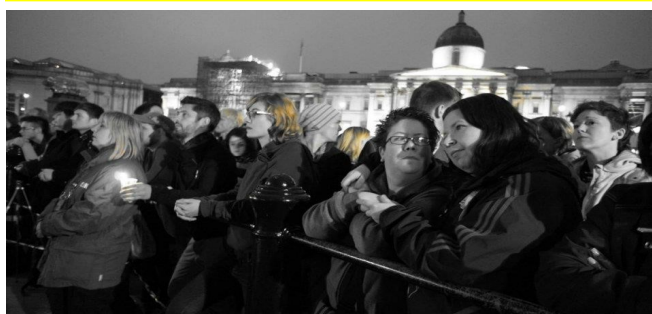

If you don't want to speak to the police, there are other third party organisations you can speak to – listed on our website.

Register your events!

We will place markers on the National Hate Crime Google Map to show hate crime awareness events and activities taking place across the United Kingdom.

National Hate Crime Awareness Week #NHCAW

A week of action in October, to raise awareness of hate crime, to remember those we have lost and those who need our ongoing support.

Challenging hate crime in all its forms.

We encourage local authorities (police and councils) to work alongside key partners, and communities affected by hate crime to tackle local issues.

To spread a message of H.O.P.E.

- Hate crime awareness.
- Operational responses to hate.
- Preventing hate crime.
- Empowering communities.

We want you to bring people together, to say no to hate crime and to make our communities safer places for all.

How can you get involved?
